

Pension Lawyers Association Conference 2005

GOVERNANCE – THE WAY FORWARD

Paper delivered by

Jonathan Mort

at

PLA Conference, March 2005

Purpose of Governance

- To ensure that the object of the fund is fulfilled.

“The object is to provide retirement and other benefits, achieved by the effective management of the fund in a way that is transparent and accountable, and is at an appropriate cost.”

Good Governance Entails

- An appropriate division of operational and oversight responsibility.
- Ensuring that those with operational and oversight responsibility are suitable for their respective functions.
- Risk management strategy.

Good Governance Entails

- Process for managing any breach of the governance arrangements.

Divisions of Governance

- Management by the board of the business of the fund.
- Management by the board of itself.
- Management by the board of the relationships which the fund has with different stakeholders.

Management of the Business of the Fund

- S.7(C)(1) “The object of a board shall be to direct, control and oversee the operations of a fund in accordance with the applicable laws and the rules of the fund”.

Management of the Business of a Fund (cont)

- Management of risk.
- Fidelity cover and rights of recourse.
- Contracts with service providers.
- Beauty Parade.
- Administrator.
- Investment policy statement with benchmarks.

Management of the Business of a Fund (cont)

- Insurance policy / segregated portfolio.
- Custodian.
- Shareholders Rights.

Management by the Board of Itself

- Trustees act jointly and are jointly liable - trust.
- Exercise discretion independently.
- Spirit of service.
- Requisite skills / training.
- Sub-committees.

Management by the Board of Itself (cont)

- Review of performance.
- Code of conduct.
- Remuneration.

Management of Relationships

- Stakeholders – members and beneficiaries.
- Employer.
- Sponsor.
- Service providers.

Management of Relationships (cont)

- Legal nature of the relationship between the fund and its stakeholders.
- Board owes fund a fiduciary obligation.
- Board owes a fiduciary obligation to members and beneficiaries.

Management of Relationships (cont)

- Good faith between the employer / sponsor and the board.
- Service provider – owes fiduciary obligation or fulfils administrative function.

Management of Relationships (cont)

- Governance requires accountability – accountability is determined by the nature of the relationship.
- Members - communication.
- AGM.

Management of Relationships (cont)

- The board and the employer – content of obligation of good faith.
- Right of withdrawal.
- Amendment of contribution rate.
- Intrusion on employment relationship.

Management of Relationships (cont)

- The board and the sponsor – reciprocal good faith.
- Confusion between sponsor and service provider and delineation of roles.
- Umbrella funds – member committee.

Pension Lawyers Association Conference 2005

THANK YOU

